Rödl & Partner has appointed Carlos Piera, until now a partner at Garrigues, as a new partner to strengthen its Labour area

As highlighted in its press release, with this new incorporation the firm has the aim of further strengthening this practice area. In this regard, Piera (pictured) has more than 25 years of experience and is a member of the Labour Court of Catalonia. He joins from Garrigues, where he was also a partner, and previous to this he was a Labour Department partner at Baker & McKenzie in Barcelona.

With the incorporation of Piera, Rödl & Partner expands its Labour department in Catalonia, led by Joaquín Echavarri. German firm Rödl & Partner is specialized in legal, tax and financial advice with an international vocation. It has more than 111 offices located in 50 countries. In the Iberian Peninsula it has offices in Madrid, Barcelona, Lisbon and Porto.
