Ramón y Cajal Abogados has advised the banking syndicate formed by Banco Santander, Unicaja Banco, Banco BPCE Lease Sucursal en España (Natixis), and Banco Sabadell in the bridge financing and refinancing of the bank debt of the Tres Mares, group of companies, a leading chain of thermal spas in Spain.

The group operates under the trade name Relais Termal and owns eight spa hotels.

The finance partner Amado Gimenez Bono (pictured) led the team formed by lawyers Diego Gabarain Beristain and María Heredero Vidal, who advised on the transaction.
