Revenue at Gómez-Acebo & Pombo increased 3 per cent to €62 million in 2018.

International business accounted for 13 per cent of the revenue.

The firm's Lisbon office experienced a 39 per cent increase in revenue.

Deals on which the firm was instructed during 2018 included Fusion Global Business Solutions' acquisition of BSM Iberia, Kaneka Europe Holding Company's purchase of a 26.86 per cent stake in AB-Biotics, and Sherpa Capital's acquisition of a majority stake in Spanish co-working space provider Busining.

The firm also recruited a five-lawyer real estate team from King & Wood Mallesons – led by partner Enrique Isla – in 2018.
