Revenue at Hogan Lovells’ Spanish offices stood at €41.6 million in 2017, an increase of 7.4 per cent compared to the previous year.

The firm has offices in Madrid and Alicante – a firm statement said the Madrid office had increased its billing by 7.8 per cent in the last year.

The statement added that 2017 had been “the best year for Hogan Lovells in Spain”.

Globally, Hogan Lovells billed more than $2 billion dollars, its best result to date. The global figure went up 5.8 per cent compared to the previous year.

Lucas Osorio, the firm's Madrid managing partner said: "2017 has been a very good year for us, which demonstrates, once again, the consolidation of Hogan Lovells in the Spanish market as evidenced by our economic results and our recognition both locally and internationally."
