Vieira Rocha-Advogados has recruited Ricardo Clara

Clara (pictured) holds a degree and a Master's degree in Law from the Catholic University of Porto and has been working with a greater focus on Labour Law, Social Security and Collective Bargaining, as well as being a lawyer for the Legal Services / Litigation of the North Bankers' Union. He is also a member of the Commission on Human Rights, Social Issues and Nature Issues of the Portuguese Bar Association (2017-2019).

For Ricardo Clara, "the opportunity to collaborate with Vieira Rocha - Advogados is something that I had been projecting for some years, not only because of the experience and specialization of its colleagues, but mainly because the firm works in an informal and integrated structure in the Clients' activity, which it considers to be the new paradigm of Law".
