RocaJunyent has hired Jaime Tarrero Martos to strengthen its Capital Markets and M&A practice in Madrid

RocaJunyent has incorporated Jaime Tarrero Martos (pictured) as a new partner in the Corporate Department in Madrid. His entry reinforces the firm's Capital Markets, M&A, Corporate and Banking areas.

Since 2018, Jaime Tarrero has been the head of the Corporate Area of AmRest Holdings, the largest independent operator of restaurant chains in Europe listed on the Spanish and Polish stock exchanges, after a long career of more than twelve years at Uría Menéndez. He also worked for a year in Cleary Gottlieb's New York office in the LatAm area. The new partner specialises in M&A transactions, IPOs, refinancings, takeover bids, rights issues, ABBs, debt and hybrid issuances and LMEs, as well as in corporate, regulatory and corporate governance of listed companies. He has extensive experience in multi-jurisdictional transactions.

A graduate in Law and Business Administration and Management from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, he is admitted to practice in both Spain and Mexico. In the academic field Jaime Tarrero works recurrently with different institutions giving classes and seminars related to his areas of practice, highlighting his collaborations with the Universidad Carlos III and the Instituto Superior de Derecho y Economía (ISDE).
