RocaJunyent has advised fintech Snab on its first pre-seed investment round of €1.1 million. The deal has been led by partners José Luis Pita da Veiga and Xavier Foz and lawyers Marc Rovira and Marina Zarza.

Snab is the spanish payments platform that allows to make payments and transfers between companies in one click and manage treasury from a single place. Juan Coll and Borja Aguirre are the co-founders of Madrid-based startup Snab.

This investment will enable Snab to further develop its technology and offer companies greater innovation to gain more control over their finances and treasury.
