Ramón y Cajal Abogados (RyC) has advised on the refinancing of the long-term bank debt of INV Seguridad and its group of companies, headed by a banking syndicate made up of Banco Santander, BBVA, Caixabank, Banco Sabadell, Deutsche Bank and Alteralia (Fund of Deuda de Alantra), as well as the aforementioned and third parties in various short-term bilateral debt instruments, and the British fund Be Spoke.

Alvarez & Marsal has provided financial advice on the complex refinancing operation that was signed in Madrid on June 9, the amount being confidential.

The INV Seguridad Group employs more than 2,000 people, after 30 years of history in various security segments, such as installation systems, security and personal maintenance, cybersecurity, protection and maintenance in Spain, Portugal, Mexico, Brazil, Peru and Colombia.
