LatAm report

Connecting the dots

Having been largely spared from the world's financial crisis, Latin America's economies are under construction, with lucrative deals and opportunities across all sectors. But foreign investors looking to capitalise face cross-regional competitors as well, so there is no time to waste in linking up with the region's opportunities.

Law Firm Profile

Trials and triumphs

For José Luis Huerta, Managing Partner of Hogan Lovells in Madrid and also Head of its Dispute Resolution Department, trials are his passion. "You need to feel passion for your profession," he says, "otherwise it's a very tough profession to be in". Huerta has been with Hogan Lovells in Madrid ever since it began life as Lovells in 2004. Subsequently, he has survived the trials of building up a business, and adjusting to a merger and the ongoing crisis.
