

SLCM ADVISES MILLENNIUM BCP ON THE SALE OF THE MADEIRA PALÁCIO HOTEL

Posted on 10/06/2021

Category: Archive

Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins Advogados has advised Millennium BCP during the process of selling

the Hotel Madeira Palácio to the Pestana Group

The SLCM team was led by partner Maria Raquel Moreira (pictured), a lawyer who has been working at SLCM her entire career. She is responsible for the Litigation & Arbitration and Restructuring & Insolvency practice areas and has been involved in matters of particular complexity, related to companies in difficult economic situations, asset recovery and restructuring.

The SLCM team that advised Millennium BCP on the sale of the Hotel Madeira Palácio, also involved Ana Guedes Teixeira (Senior Associate) and Inês Chorro (Associate).

Ana Guedes Teixeira joined SLCM in 2012, and works mainly in the areas of Banking, Finance & Capital Markets, with special focus on Structuring and implementing financing operations, Debt Restructuring, Debt Issuance, sale of portfolios Litigation and Private Equity.

Inês Chorro has been at SLCM since 2018 and, in addition to practicing Law, she is also a professor at Universidade Católica Portuguesa.

The operation was concluded last Friday, May 28th, after a process that began around six months ago, with the Hotel Madeira Palácio being sold to the Pestana Group.