SPS Advogados has promoted three lawyers to managing associate, as part of the firm's 2021 management restructuring

In line with the strategic management restructuring defined for 2021, SPS Advogados has announced three internal promotions to managing associate.

They include Rita Santos (pictured left), who holds a degree in Law from the Moderna University of Lisbon Law School and has 11 years of experience in Banking & Finance, Insolvency and Corporate Recovery. David Martins Cardoso (pictured centre), who holds a degree in Law from the University of Lisbon and has nine years of experience in Insolvency, Banking, Civil and Executive Litigation. Finally, Neuza Ferreira Serafim (pictured right), who holds a degree in Law from Nova University of Lisbon and has eight years of experience in Banking & Financial and Commercial.

This latest round of promotions reflects the development and growth of SPS Advogados.
