SRS Advogados advised Portuguese printing industry startup 360imprimir on an €18 million investment round.

The series B investment round will be used to fund the international expansion of the company into new markets, an increase in product lines and technological innovations.

360imprimir is an online printer and 'marketplace', which allows the aggregation of customised orders from various customers to optimise production, costs and price.

The SRS Advogados team included partners Gustavo Ordonhas Oliveira (pictured) and Paulo Bandeira.
