The firm has also appointed the new board of directors for the 2022-2024 mandate, chaired by Pedro Rebelo de Sousa and comprising partners, Alexandre Roque, César Sá Esteves, Gonçalo Anastácio, José Jácome, José Luís Moreira da Silva, Maria José Tavares, Octávio Castelo Paulo and the managing director, Paula Ferreira Borges.

Finally, SRS Advogados has also elected a new advisory committee, comprising partners, Ana Luísa Beirão, Carla Neves Matias, Gustavo Ordonhas Oliveira, José Carlos Soares Machado, Paulo Bandeira and Pedro Rebelo de Sousa.

"It is with pride that we witness these moves within SRS. They are the result of clear career plans with tangible goals, culminating with the just recognition of excellent professionals. An additional word on Mariana and Neuza, who have been with us for 20 years; they started here as trainees and have progressed all the way to their well-deserved status as equity partners. They are an integral part of the short, medium and long-term future of SRS Advogados," said Pedro Rebelo de Sousa, managing partner of SRS Advogados.
