Telles has advised Vallis Capital Partners and Pathena on the sale of VORTAL to DOCU Nordic

Telles Advogados advised Portuguese private equity firm Vallis Capital Partners and Pathena, two of the holders of VORTAL, on the sale of the company to DOCU Nordic, a Stirling Square Capital Partners portfolio company.

VORTAL, dedicated to eSourcing, eProcurement and eMarketplace business, is devoted to "help public and private clients buy better and sell more in an efficient, transparent and collaborative manner". It has 350,000 clients worldwide from small municipalities to national central procurement bodies and from SMEs to large multinational corporations and financial institutions all over the globe, with offices in Portugal, Spain, Germany, Italy and Latin America. VORTAL has expanded internationally, focusing on Latin America and Europe.
