Telles has advised Vellar on the process of selling 100% of the share capital and voting rights of the company Velltrans – Trânsito e Transportes, Lda.

The work of the Corporate, Commercial and M&A team at Telles included the preparation and negotiation of all necessary and convenient legal instruments for the transaction, namely the negotiation and drafting of the contract for the purchase and sale of shareholdings. This operation was led, pictured from left to right, by the co-head of Corporate, Commercial and M&A, Francisco Espregueira Mendes and by of counsel, Nuno Marques, with the active participation of the associate Tomás Paiva Rosado.

This process also had the intervention of CS'Associados through Galliker Holding AG.

Velltrans is a Portuguese company, internationally recognised for the provision of international road transport services, as well as maritime and air freight services to the whole world. Velltrans also offers a wide range of logistics and distribution services.
