Telles Advogados has hired José Pedroso de Melo as an of counsel in the tax department

He was previously a managing associate at SRS Advogados, where he spent six years. Prior to that he was a partner at CCA Law.

Pedroso de Melo has more than 20 years of experience in national and international tax law, banking and insurance, real estate, mergers and acquisitions, tax litigation and private clients.

Miguel Torres, managing partner of Telles, said: "José's integration continues the strong investment we have made in strengthening and valuing Telles' teams, particularly in the area of tax."
