SRS Advogados advised Sound Particles and investors Indico Capital and Iberis on the recent €2.5M seed investment round for the Portuguese startup operating in the field of audio software for films.

The SRS Advogados team involved in the transaction included Paulo Bandeira and Gustavo Oliveira (partners) and Solange Fernandes (associate).

Paulo Bandeira highlighted that for SRS, it is important to be associated with innovative and leading projects in their respective areas of activity. Sound Particles is yet another example of a company where legal advice is an important part of the innovation process and the company's future growth.
