Jorge del Castillo Golding (pictured) has joined Toda&Nel-lo Madrid Tax department as a senior lawyer to join Lourdes Pérez-Luque's team. Coming from Uría Menéndez, where he has worked from 2011 until last April, Jorge has ten years of experience in Tax Law, specifically in International Taxation, investment and divestment operations outside Spain and Taxation of Corporate Restructuring operations and Joint Ventures.

He holds a degree in Law and Business Administration and Management from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid and a Master's degree in Tax Consultancy from IE in 2011.

He is an associate lecturer at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid in Comparative Taxation and Business Tax Planning for the MBA (University Master's degree in Business Administration and Management) and Business Taxation for the MAC (University Master's degree in Auditing and Accounting).

On his appointment, Lourdes Pérez-Luque, partner and head of Tax at Toda & Nel-lo, said: "Jorge del Castillo joins Toda & Nel-lo just one month after the incorporation of the new Tax team in the Madrid office. For us, it is a pleasure to have Jorge as a new member of the team as he brings dynamism and solid knowledge and we continue to strengthen the practice of the tax law area with a special focus on wealth management and international taxation."

For his part, Jorge del Castillo added: "I am very excited about this new project at Toda & Nel-lo; a firm with a long legal tradition and an exciting project in Madrid that is growing at a national level and where, from now on, I hope to be able to contribute with my experience and perspective."
