

TTR AND DATASITE PUBLISH 'TOP WOMEN LEGAL AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS M&A SPAIN'

Posted on 25/07/2022

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Datasite, slider, Teresa Zueco, TTR

The report 'Top Women in the Legal and Financial Sector in M&A Advisory in Spain in the first half of 2022, conducted by Transactional Track Record (TTR) and in alliance with Datasite, makes visible the work of women in the legal and financial sector in large M&A transactions through the publication of the female ranking in the Spanish M&A market in 2022.

The growing awareness of the gender gap in the Spanish M&A market has prompted platforms such as TTR and Datasite to adopt critical analyses that highlight the advantages of diversity in such a competitive environment as the legal and financial sector.

This is why, in order to recognise the work of women in the professional field of M&A, and in the absence of legal and financial rankings of female participation in this market, TTR in collaboration with Datasite, have prepared a specific ranking of the leading female advisors in M&A in the first half of 2022, both in terms of capital raised, as well as the number of women, both in the financial sector and in the category of partners, counsels and rising stars for the legal sector.

According to data from the platform's ranking of legal advisors, in the Partners & Counsels category, the female legal industry in the Spanish M&A market is led in 2022, by amount, by Teresa Méndez Flórez, from Allen & Overy, with capital raised of 4.668 billion euros, and by Mónica Martín de Vidales, from Garrigues, with capital raised of 2.021 billion euros.

By number of transactions in the Partners & Counsels category, Teresa Zueco (pictured left), of Squire Patton Boggs, with 16 transactions; and Silvia Martínez Losas (pictured right), of Lexcrea, with 12 transactions, lead the ranking of the most active female legal advisors in the Spanish M&A market.

In the Rising Stars category, Patricia Figueroa, from Allen & Overy, with a mobilised capital of 4.158 billion euros, is the leader in the Spanish M&A market. Andrea Zubiaga Fernández, from Allen & Overy, with an amount advised of 4.048 billion euros, lead the ranking of the most active female legal advisors in the Spanish M&A market by capital raised, while Itxaso Madrazo Carcedo, from Lawsome, with 8 transactions, and Patricia Pérez Beade, from Gómez-Acebo & Pombo, with 6 deals, lead the ranking of the most active female legal advisors in the Spanish M&A market by number of transactions in 2022.

In the Finance Executives category, María José Martínez Gil, from ONEtoONE Corporate Finance, with 1 transaction and an amount of 20.6 million euros, leads the ranking of the most active financial advisors in the Spanish M&A market by capital raised and number of transactions during the year.

The firms with the highest female participation in the Spanish M&A market are Garrigues, with 3 women in the Partners & Counsels category; Baker McKenzie, with 2 participations; Linklaters with 2 women lawyers and Squire Patton Boggs with 2 women lawyers.

The firms with the highest female participation in the Spanish M&A market in the Top 10 in the Rising Stars category are Allen & Overy, Gómez-Acebo & Pombo and Uría Menéndez, with 3 participations for each firm.