UHY International held the 20th edition of the UHY Forum in Malaga from september 21 to 24, a programme aimed at the future leaders of UHY, an international consulting and auditing network. The meeting is focused on participants developing their leadership and negotiation skills as a basis for achieving objectives through good team management.

UHY Fay & Co has been in charge of the organisation of the UHY Forum at the Hotel Fuerte de Grazalema (Cádiz) and has counted on San Telmo Business School, a centre for the training and development of management skills.

This year's UHY Forum brought together 40 representatives from 17 countries including Canada, Malaysia, New Zealand, Poland, Spain, the United Kingdom, the United States and New Zealand.

"UHY has always been committed to this type of programme because it is essential for the development of our professionals, as well as for the creation of multidisciplinary teams that are international and involved in transnational transactions," explains Bernard Fay, Managing Partner of UHY Fay & Co.
