The London-based full-service law firm has been formally registered in the Spanish Commercial Register and legally active since last week, having Eusebio Pujol Amat as its sole administrator

A new landing of a UK firm has taken place in Spain. As Iberian Lawyer has been able to confirm with Spanish Commercial Register public data, the company Spencer West S.L.P. was officially registered and legally active since last June 5, with its address in Barcelona (C/. Corpernic, 89) and Eusebio Pujol Amat (pictured) appointed as its sole administrator and partner.

Antoine West is the co-founder and managing partner of Spencer West UK.

The law firm describes itself as “International business and private wealth lawyers. We are a leading full-service international law firm advising businesses and individuals across the UK and globally. Headquartered in the City of London, our firm is built on strong collaborative values. Our experienced lawyers are recognised experts in their fields from leading City, national and international law firms and senior in-house positions. Working in a modern and dynamic way with autonomy over where, when and how they work, our lawyers view issues from your perspective to deliver the best results. With an extensive and growing network, our international presence and global outlook means that we are uniquely placed to advise on the entire spectrum of corporate, commercial and private wealth matters across multiple jurisdictions.”

Lawyer Eusebio Pujol Amat, former partner at MA Abogados, is currently of counsel and head of International Contracting at Barcelona-based law firmTBVQ (Trias de Bes & Vidal-Quadras). He has extensive experience in providing recurring Legal advice to multinational groups in various sectors, national and international Contracting, Acquisitions and Financing of companies, Joint Ventures, start-ups, Private Equity transactions, advice to Real Estate operators and Legal matters relating to personal Data Protection, Technology Transfer and E-commerce.
