His entry into VdA, is a source of great pride and satisfaction, constituting a reinforcement for a core area of the firm, which already has enormous talent and a unique track record in mergers and acquisitions in Portugal."

Francisco Sá Carneiro said: "I have known and been friends with João Vieira de Almeida for over thirty years and, during this period, I had the great pleasure of working not only with him, but with countless other partners and associates of VdA, with whom I maintained an excellent relationship. Now having the opportunity to join the partners of a firm with the reputation, capacity, organisation, depth and quality of VdA, is both a challenge and a great personal and professional opportunity."
